Dear Col. Brooks.

Hampton made a mistake in sending so many back. The doctor had agreed with me that it was about as well to send only one, or possibly two boys back. The doctor appears to have been away and the matter seems to have been left in the hands of the colored man in charge Robbins! Why they failed to respond with the names of those selected, as I asked, or in any way he does not explain.

Red Cloud & Spotted Tail must understand that what I take, must stand the racket. The return of the Sevens must be turned to good accounts, but no hopes of the kind should be held out to them who come now.

Will the Dept. give any orders about the four (4) who will still be required to make up the lot for Hampton?

Yours
Ed. Peabody

Dear Col. Brooks,

Hampton made a mistake in sending so many back. The doctor had agreed with me that it was about as well to send only one, or possibly two boys back. The doctor appears to have been away and the matter seems to have been left in the hands of the colored man in charge (Robbins). Why they failed to respond with the names of those selected, as I asked on Sunday, he does not explain.

Red Cloud & Spotted Tail must understand that what I take, must stand the racket. The return of the seven must be turned to good enough, but no hope of the kind should be held out to those who come now.

Will the Dept. give any orders about the four (4) who will still be required to make up the 68 for Hampton?

Yours,
R. H. Pratt
